

ElectriCITY

Official Publication of the Electric Association | Serving Chicagoland Since 1926

ElectriCITY is a quarterly magazine for Electric Association members, including contractors, distributors, manufacturers, members-at-large, consulting electrical engineers, the Women's Division, the Chicago Electrical Estimators Association, the Electric Golf Club of Chicago, the Little Wheels Club of Chicago, and NEMRA: Chicago-Chapter.

ElectriCITY aids in the implementation of EA's mission statement:

To provide members of the electrical industry of Chicagoland and their employees with formal educational opportunities, professional development, information exchange, and member services.

and

To serve as the interface between various organizations serving the same industry, and foster the interchange of ideas, product knowledge, and programs in order to create the best external environment possible for conducting business in the electrical industry.
